Where We Had an Impact

- 9 states and the U.S. Virgin Islands
- Strong focus in the Hudson Valley and Capital Region of New York

Areas of Focus

Education & Opportunity

Supporting students, workforce development, and access to higher education.

Food & Basic Needs

Addressing food insecurity and essential services for vulnerable families.

Community Stability

Programs that promote housing stability, crisis support, and financial resilience.

Health & Well-Being

Improving access to health resources and social support.

Real Stories, Real Impact

Education

75 students supported through Honor Society membership in 2025

“Marshall+Sterling’s long-standing support sends an important message to our students that our community cares and is cheering them on to success every day.”

— Marianne Senneca, SUNY Schenectady

Food Security

1,000+ households supported with expanded access to food & groceries

“Because of Marshall+Sterling’s faithful support, families seeking help during economic strain are met with full shelves, choice, and dignity — not scarcity and fear.”

— Renee Miccio, Dutchess Outreach

Community

2,122 meals, 393 rides to medical appointments and job interviews, 60 family crisis interventions

“Our impact may be just a ride, a book, or a meal, but to the person receiving the support, it may mean a reduction in stress, an increase in well-being, or the ability to keep a job or get to a critical medical appointment or service.”

— Elizabeth Manning, United Way of the Dutchess–Orange Region

Through Impact+, Marshall+Sterling remains committed to strengthening communities by supporting trusted nonprofit partners and investing in programs that create lasting opportunity, stability, and resilience.
